ROBERT THURSTON, GUEST CONDUCTOR

Robert Thurston is the retired Chief Arranger for The United States Air Force Band in Washington, DC. He served with the Band for his entire 20-year career, where he had the privilege and pleasure of writing custom arrangements and original works for the military's finest musicians. His compositions and arrangements span a multitude of styles and include works for wind band, orchestra, chorus, studio orchestra, strings, jazz ensemble, brass band and various chamber ensembles.

Beyond his military duties, Mr. Thurston has written extensively for high school and college concert bands and marching bands throughout the United States, and his works frequently appear on state performance-assessment literature lists. Moreover, his seasonal music arrangements have enjoyed wide popularity, including in particular his cello/ukulele duet arrangement of "Happy Xmas (War Is Over)" (recorded by cello virtuoso Yo-Yo Ma and ukulele phenomenon Jake Shimabukuro) and his big-band arrangement of "You're a Mean One, Mr. Grinch."
